Overview

In the summer of 2010, KIPP Austin Public Schools will open its first elementary school, KIPP Austin Comunidad, with 120 Kindergarteners. At full capacity in 2014, Comunidad will serve close to 500 Kindergarten through fourth graders.

Mission and Values

KIPP Austin Comunidad shares the KIPP Austin Public Schools' mission to empower underserved students to strengthen academic skills, intellectual habits, and character traits necessary to thrive in and graduate from four year colleges and universities, giving them the freedom to shape their futures and positively affect their communities. Comunidad will embody KIPP Austin's shared values of Honor, Quality, Courage, Tenacity and Community as a basis for all planning, action and reflection.

Teacher Profile

Qualified applicants will:

- Commit to the KIPP Austin Public Schools' mission
- Have a strong record of making significant gains, primarily with minority and low-income students
- Be willing to teach in an extended school day and school year model
- Thrive working collaboratively in a team-teaching, dual language education model
- Embrace an International Baccalaureate philosophy that encourages life-long learning and focuses on the total growth of each child
- Value ongoing and frequent assessment as a means for helping each and every child achieve educational greatness
- Implement and continuously elevate classroom systems, rituals and practices consistent with school culture
- Appreciate observation and seek feedback
- Bring joy, inspiration and heart to their daily instructional practice
- Believe that every child, regardless of background, will learn

KIPP Austin Comunidad is now accepting applications on a rolling basis for a July 2010 start date.
